

Learnin' To Love

by David Washington

You can play any part that you want to,
Be the oyster or the pearl.
Your goals and dreams enlighten you
To be an ace in your ace-high world.
But when friends say they love you,
Do you feel a little doubt?
Do you see the same thing they do?
Well, check you vision out. Check it out!

Learnin' to love,
The only thing to do.
It can be so easy
To love all of you.
Learnin' to love
As only God can do.
Look beyond the fear my friend
And find the perfect
You.....
Love comes through.

We've all had disappointments
In the way we've lived our lives.
Looking back is pointless
Unless we plan to change our minds.
There's a party goin' on in Spirit
As the planet makes the jump
And perfect love, if you bring it,
Will lead us up
To who knows where?
Who knows where?!
