

My True Nature

by David Washington

My true nature is love in action,
Ever present, clear and strong.
My true nature is love in motion,
A single word, a single song.

Every breeze through every tree
Reminds me of the life I live.
Every drop of every sea
Reveals the Holy Word.

Every cell in my whole body
Powered by the life I live;
Every joyful thought I feel
Reveals the Holy Word.

Every trace of grace and beauty
Merging in the life I live.
Everything within, without
Reveals the Holy Word.
