

Let It Begin

by David Washington

When I call you up
And your head is spinning from the winning and the losing that looks like luck.
Do you feel afraid
Of getting lost in the shuffle and your feathers ruffled in the passing parade?

Hold on the truth that you embody.
Keep your eye steady within.
Just turn your fears and your tears into a party.
Open you heart and let it begin.

Do you understand
The ups and the downs and the turning around in the life of man?
Don't be alarmed.

Life has us all and we'll never fall from loving arms.
Hold on the truth that you embody.
Keep your eye steady within.
Just turn your fears and your tears into a party.
Open you heart and let it begin.

(Right from the start)
(Right from the beginning)
(Straight through your heart)
(Love's never ending)

Love is waiting (Right from the start)
To move through you (Right from the beginning)
Give peace a chance (Straight through your heart)
See what love can do (Love's never ending)

Hate's had it's season (Right from the start)
And it's been disproved. (Right from the beginning)
Open your mind (Straight through your heart)
See what love can do. (Love's never ending)

Let It Begin

Love is waiting (Right from the start)
To be your friend. (Right from the beginning)
Open your heart. (Straight through your heart)
Love never ends. (Love never ends)

When I call you up
And the sun is shining on a golden morning and the buttercups.
I'm glad we're free
To discover each other and the beauty uncovered when we let it be
    Hold on the truth that you embody.
    Keep your eye steady within.
    Just turn your fears and your tears into a party.
    Open you heart and let it begin.
