

Sun Shower - David Washington

Walkin' down the west side of Colfax
Lookin' at the cars and the artifacts
When a stray raindrop hit me on my brow,
Come on everybody we can get it now.

You can get in your head and all of your trips,
Cryin' and a poutin' over what you missed,
Or you can grab the moment, this is it.
Tilt your head back and get a good hit.

Sun shower, what a surprise,
Sun shower, right in my eye.
Sun shower. I'm glad I'm alive for the
Sun shower of love.

When the stars are clear as a bell at night,
And the days are cloudless and out of sight.
Life sends a raindrop, or maybe a pair to say,
"I'm still with you kids and I sure do care".

Sun shower, nectar of life.
Sun shower, sure does taste nice.
Sun shower. I'm glad I'm alive for the
Sun shower of love.

Sun shower...
Sun shower...
Sun shower, I'm glad I'm alive for the Sun shower of love.
